

Tier Coprosma

Coprosma dumosa

full sun

shade

wet

dry

frost

wind

Max height: 2 m

Form

Bushy shrub with 'layered' branches

Leaves

- Small 4-6 mm long
- Elliptical
- In clusters of pairs
- Main vein on underside reaches the tip

Flowers

- Separate male and female plants
- Very small and inconspicuous
- Pale yellow
- Wind pollinated
- November to December

Where to plant

forest

shrubland

wetland

riparian

Fruit/seeds

- Round
- Usually transparent but can be pale pink or bright red
- Ripen in autumn
- Eaten by birds

Foundation species – plant first

Southland species – plant local

