

Needle-leaved Mountain Coprosma

Coprosma rugosa

Max height: 2 m

Form

Interlacing wide-angled twigs

Leaves

- Small and reduced
- Very narrow leaves in clusters or pairs
- 10-14 mm long
- Up to 1.5 mm wide

Flowers

- Separate male and female plants
- Flowers are very small and inconspicuous
- Pale yellow
- Wind pollinated

Where to plant

Fruit/seeds

- Round
- Pale to dark blue
- Ripen in autumn
- Eaten by birds

Foundation species – plant first
Southland species – plant local

