

Mingimingi

Coprosma propinqua

full sun

shade

wet

dry

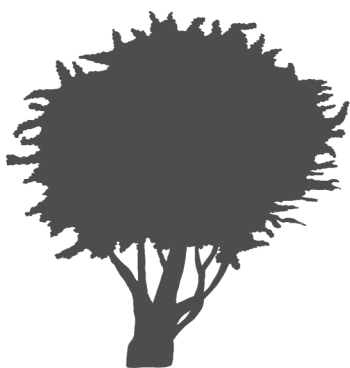

frost

wind

Max height: 3 m

Form

Bushy shrub with wide-angled branches

Leaves

- Narrow shape
- 4-10mm long
- 2-3mm wide
- Opposite on stem, in clusters
- Dark green on top, paler underneath

Flowers

- Separate male and female plants
- Flowers are very small and inconspicuous
- Wind pollinated

male flowers

Where to plant

forest

shrubland

wetland riparian

Fruit/seeds

- Small, round
- Distinct translucent blueish fruit
- 7mm diameter
- Ripen in autumn
- March to April
- Eaten by birds

Foundation species – plant first

Southland species – plant local

