

Māhoe-wao (Narrow-leaved Māhoe)

Melicytus lanceolatus

full sun

shade

wet

dry

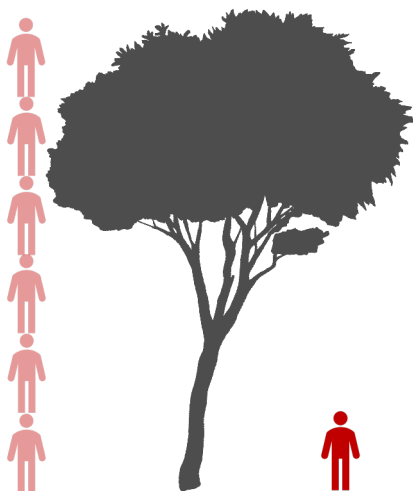

frost

wind

Max height: 12 m

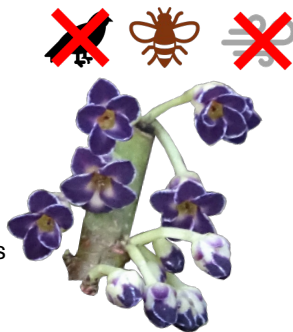

Leaves

- Down-curving
- Narrow
- Tough
- Finely serrated edges
- 5-16 cm long
- 0.5-2 cm wide

Flowers

- Small
- 5 mm diameter
- Yellow or dark purple
- Fragrant
- Scattered in groups along twigs

Where to plant

forest

shrubland

wetland riparian

Fruit/seeds

- Round
- Dark purple
- 4-6 mm diameter
- Approx. 10 mm long
- February to April
- Eaten by birds

Foundation species – plant first

Southland species – plant local

