

Weeping Māpou

Myrsine divaricata

full sun

shade

wet

dry

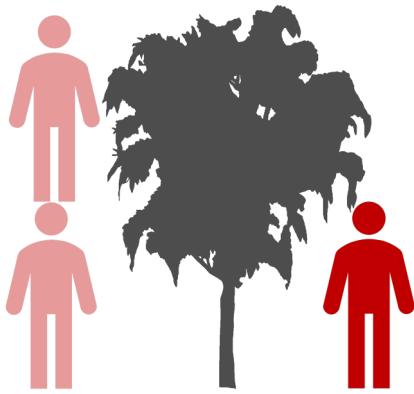

frost

wind

Max height: 4 m

Form

Shrub or small tree with drooping/ weeping branchlets

Where to plant

forest

shrubland

wetland riparian

Leaves

- Small and leathery
- Oval or heart-shaped
- 5-15 mm long
- 5-10 mm wide
- Oil glands dotted along leaf

Flowers

- Very small
- 2-3 mm diameter
- Yellow to reddish
- October to November

Fruit/seeds

- Round
- Bright purple to black
- 4-5 mm diameter
- Eaten by birds
- February to May

Foundation species – plant first

Southland species – plant local

