

Permaculture and the Home Garden

Geoff Dembo

Saturday 11 February 2023

Venue - Southland Community Nursery Education Centre

Time - 9am-4pm

Cost $20

Illustration: Felix Müller (www.zukunft-selbermachen.de) Licence: CC-BY-SA 4.0

“Zoning is an important part of permaculture design. It helps to arrange all elements in a system by the level of care needed and their interrelations.”

Permaculture and the Home Garden - Geoff Dembo

Saturday 11th February 2023

Venue Southland Community Nursery Education Centre – park at 183 Grant Road and walk to venue at 185 Grant Road via marked route through orchard. Time 9am – 4pm.

Booking Essential - $20 each (paying will confirm your place) plus bring food for lunch or food to share for lunch. If you cancel the week before, you will get your money returned only if we can get someone to take your place (we cannot refund if you cancel on the day).

Email rances@southlandcommunitynursery.org.nz

Bank Account Number 031355 0645582 00 Southland Community Nursery

8-10 people (first come first served). Bring your own notebook etc. We will be doing an outdoor site visit so dress for the weather.

Programme

Please be at the venue for 9am sharp, as we have a lot to cover. Other timings are approximate

- | | |
|-------|--|
| 9.00 | Welcome and housekeeping Introductions Permaculture principles and the home garden |
| 10.00 | Morning Tea |
| 10.30 | Observation/characteristics for a site Own needs/community needs Design process - planning versus evolution and inspiration Design ideas and experience |
| 12.00 | BYO/shared Lunch |
| 1.00 | Briefing for site visit Visit to nearby site: host Geoff Dembo Site history, observation and discussion Return to Community Nursery |
| 3.00 | Cuppa Review of visited site Design ideas for attendees' sites Where do we go from here ? |

Looking forward to meeting you ☺